How I work

Any request of yours will be attended within 48 hours. After a review of the details you have sent I will provide you a fair quote of the time I need to complete the research with an estimated cost. I combine traditional search techniques with modern technology (on-line databases, with access restricted), and offer you:

- A quick service
- Thorough and detailed
- Progress updates on the research
- Intuitive, creative search methods when needed
- Competitive fees

At the end you will receive a professional written report including all the necessary documentation to prove search results.

Professional conduct code

All the information emerging from the research will be handled as strict confidential and not disclosed to third parties without prior written consent.

I never enter into any financial agreements with heirs.

I'm member of :

IAGI Istituto Araldico Genealogico Italiano

Association of Professional Genealogists

Costs and fees

For investigations requiring extensive genealogical research and documentation, I work at an hourly rate. After receiving your search request I will provide you an estimate of the hours needed.

In order to start the research you will be asked to authorize a specific number of working hours. If research needs more time than expected and the costs become higher than 10% of the budget you will be asked to authorize the additional work.

You can contact me in order to know for my current hourly fee and to receive a quote tailored to your specific case, without any obligation.
